

Amphenol Broadband Solutions is one of the premier manufacturers for coaxial cables for the telecommunications industries. Our product profile provides designs for specialized applications needing coaxial cables in various sizes, combinations, and specifications for telecommunications as well as the radio, video, TV and information industries.

Eco-friendly tech service bags utilize a 500' coil vs. a traditional reel that installs into the technician service bag by utilizing a refillable reel

Legacy tech service bag utilize a 500' reel of cable that installs into the Technician Service Bag

Reel in a Box packaging is available for a wide variety of our indoor drop cable applications

ABS coaxial drop products are available in 1,000' reel lengths. Direct burial cable and aerial messengered cables come on 1,000' as the standard

Features:

- Cable Construction Available: Series 6 and Series 11
- Jacketing Available: PVC for Indoor/Outdoor Applications Plenum Applications
Riser Rated Applications
PVC Aerial Messengered Applications
PE & PE Direct Burial Applications
- ETL Jacketing Ratings Available: CATV, CMP, CATVP, CMR, CATVR, CM, CMG, CMX
- Shielding Performance Available: 60% Dual Shield, 77% Tri-Shield, 60%/40% Quad-Shield

Additional Features:

lifeTime® non-flowing indoor / outdoor application additive between the jacket and the braid providing superior corrosion protection, moisture mitigation and lubrication for easier connector insertions available

Quickprep bonded foil design comes standard for all of our tri-shield cables at no additional cost

Same prep / Same Connectors / Same steps

Quality Tested and Approved by major MSOs for quality, mechanical, and electrical performance lifeTime is a registered trademark of Times Fiber Communications, Inc.